GLYNLLISON GARDENS
HAYDEN ROW, MASS.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We invite our patrons to visit Glynllison Gardens and see the flowers in bloom. We are located directly on the highway between Hopkinton and Milford, a splendid auto road from Boston to Providence, about 30 miles from Boston through Framingham.

A New Venture

We have made quite an extensive planting of Narcissus, Daffodils and Jonquils, also Tulips, in order that the embargo shall not prevent our customers from obtaining the bulbs heretofore imported. These will be in bloom in April and May, and will present a sight that heretofore could be seen only in Holland. We shall have a limited supply of bulbs next fall to offer to our regular customers.

Other Fall Stocks

We shall also offer for next fall planting a line of Peonies, Irises and hardy plants of special varieties not handled by the average grower.

Our fall list will be interesting. Write for it.

TERMS. Cash with order. Send money in any way convenient to you. Personal checks accepted. Stamps accepted for amounts less than $1.00.

DOZEN PRICES. Unless otherwise stated, six of a variety for the price of FIVE, and TWELVE for the price of TEN.

TRADE PRICES. While we do not grow for the trade, we have some items in commercial quantities and will be pleased to quote prices on application.

GUARANTEE. We will replace any stock not true to name, or which fails to grow through fault of the stock. OTHERWISE we give no GUARANTEE, express or implied, as to the quality, productiveness or any other matter of the seeds, bulbs and plants which we send out, and will not be responsible for the crop.

However, if anything is wrong, please give us an opportunity to make a satisfactory adjustment in an amount not exceeding the value of the goods purchased.

SHIPPING. All orders are carefully checked and packed, and our responsibility ceases on delivery to the Post Office or transportation company.

NOTICE. Do not address the manager personally, for during the busy season his mail gets attention only once a week, while mail properly addressed receives prompt attention by the proper person.

H. L. GILMAN, Manager.

A Dahlia Bargain

We are closing out all our field grown dahlias, consisting of some 400 varieties and including all the prize winners of the last few years. Everything that listed last year at $5.00 or less is included. They will be unlabeled and are sent just as they come. There are hundreds of fine exhibition varieties that will help to Make Your Garden Glorious. They will be sent parcel post prepaid. As many as you want.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Our business was badly hampered last year and I will confess was neglected by me, on account of the death of my wife, Mrs. Ethel M. Gilman, the owner of Glynllison, after many months of illness. I offer my apologies to those customers who feel that they were not treated properly, and promise to adjust any matter to your satisfaction if you will write me.

It will be the aim of our new organization to sell only satisfactory goods and to make good promptly any reasonable claim.

I am using last year's design on this year's catalogue, for the hand of the artist was stilled before the new drawing was completed, the original drawings with which it was to be illustrated were also unfinished, so you will find this catalogue is merely a price list, as I had not the time nor heart to do more. I hope, however, that you will find something in it of interest and that I may receive a share of your business.

You will find two new dahlias announced, which are a sample of the many good things to come. I do not expect to greatly increase the size of my future catalogues, but rather to offer a small line of the newer and better creations of the Horticultural World, both my own and the best foreign productions. I am importing more new and rare foreign varieties than any other house for sole use in our nurseries and shall propagate them for introduction to our customers.

My sole enjoyment now is the growing of rare and beautiful flowers. Flowers that will bring joy to sad hearts and greater pleasure to happy ones. We are breeding some wonderful Dahlias and a new family of Gladiolus and Irises, which will be introduced soon, and propagating a beautiful collection of England's newest and best hardy plants, Giant Delphiniums, Columbine, Lupines, Oriental Poppies in gorgeous new colors, Pyrethrums, etc.

Do not fail to keep your name on our list, in order that you may have the benefit of the new flowers as they are offered. We are growing in such quantities that we can sell them at very reasonable prices, and have an organization that can handle all orders efficiently and promptly. Our new packing methods will carry goods safely to any part of the country.

Soliciting a share of your patronage and assuring you of our best attention, I remain

Yours for Better Gardens,

H. L. GILMAN, Manager,
Glynllison Gardens.

GLYNLLISON'S DAHLIAS

Aristocrats of the Dahlia World

The very extensive line of plants and bulbs grown at Glynllison permits our growing only a small list of dahlias. Therefore, we have selected what we believe to be the very best. In fact, there is not one dahlia in our list that should be omitted from the average collection. Our own productions, though too expensive for the average buyer this year, will soon be among the world's most popular dahlias.

We will replace any tuber which fails to grow or which proves untrue to name. Prices are for tubers only. We do not sell plants.

AMUN RA OR THE SUN GOD. (Giant Decorative.) One of the most sensational of the new dahlias. Wonderfully perfect in shape. The outer petals of gorgeous orange and copper tones, shading to golden amber. The effect as a whole being of a glorious sunset. Very stout stems and vigorous plants.

Tubers, each, $2.50.

SHUDOWS LAVENDER. (Decorative.) A beautiful silvery lavender shading to white. Always full, with long, very stiff stems. Blooms from early in the season until killed by frost. A great prize winner.

Each, $2.50.

INSULINDA. (Decorative.) One of Glynllison's favorites. Is described as a beautiful golden ochre with a salmon red suffusion deepening towards the center, but no description can do justice to this gorgeous flower. The petals seem as though dusted with pure gold, glistening in the sun or under artificial light. Brings highest price in cut flower markets. Stems are long and stiff; a thrifty grower and prolific bloomer.

Each, $1.50.

MRS. CARL SALBACH. One of the most perfect decoratives in existence. A beautiful shade of lavender pink. Immense blooms held far above the foliage on very long stiff stems. Awarded many prizes as the best exhibition decoratives. Long-keeping cut flower.

Each, $1.00.

PRINCESS PAT. (Giant Decorative.) Flowers immense and splendid form, always with full center, a most pleasing shade of old rose, showing up wonderfully under artificial light. Free flowering on splendid stems. Very popular and in great demand.

Each, $1.50.

U. S. A. (Hybrid Cactus.) With us one of the most free blooming. All the desirable features of the dahlia are found in this—color, formation, and size. Wonderful deep orange, a color hard to find in a dahlia. The formation too is exquisite and novel.

Each, $1.50.

DR. TEVIS. (Decorative.) The dahlia with a beautiful blending of copper, old rose, and old gold. Immense flower with the best possible stem. A California variety which is becoming very popular. A great prize winner.

Each, $1.00.

THE MILLIONAIRE. (Decorative.) One of the largest, lavender pink. Flower immense, very deep and heavy. No collection is complete without the Millionaire.

Each, $1.00.

POLAR BEAR. (Decorative.) The largest and finest pure white dahlia. A great bloomer and flowers on long stiff stems. Lasts a long time on the plant or in water.

Each, $1.00.

CIGARETTE. (Hybrid Cactus.) This distinct and novel dahlia attracted more attention in our fields than any other variegated variety. Color creamy white, heavily edged pomegranate red, varying greatly, no two flowers being exactly alike. Petals long and curling, forming a deep flower of great substance, on long stout stems.

Each, $2.50.

CHAMPAIGNE. (Decorative.) The color is rare and delightful. A rich cream, suffused jasper red, giving the flower a pinkish-orange buff shade. Plants full of immense flowers on long stiff stems.

Each, $4.00.

JEAN CHAZOT OR GAY PAREE. (Hybrid Cactus.) This new dahlia is fast becoming one of the most popular show varieties. A beautiful golden bronze with just a faint suffusion of nasturtium red, that intensifies its brilliancy and adds to its charms. A prize winner wherever shown.

Each, $1.50.

TWO REMARKABLE NEW DAHLIAS

These two dahlias, offered for the first time this year, are the first original productions of Glynllison Gardens, and we believe are destined to become leaders in the dahlia world. They are the best of fifty thousand seedlings grown in 1923. We have set a high standard, and while we aim in our future productions to surpass these two varieties we hardly expect to do so.

MRS. ETHEL M. GILMAN. The most beautiful dahlia I ever grew and the only one worthy to bear the name. A rich deep scarlet, glistening in the sun or artificial light as though dusted with pure gold. Very long stout stems, carrying the heavy flowers perfectly, of decorative form, with just enough of the cactus blood to give the broad velvety petals a lovely fluffy effect. Never has shown an open center, and the longest keeping cut flower dahlia I have yet seen. We have kept the flowers in water for a week without special care. It is so tremendously prolific that heavy disbudding and pruning is required, when flowers 10 inches or more across may be produced. Six plants in our trial ground, allowed to grow undisturbed, produced 250 perfect flowers from 4 to 6 inches across. Visitors declared they never saw such a sight. This dahlia will make one of the greatest florists' varieties ever produced. I will sell only ten tubers this season.

Price each, $50.00.

MRS. LUCILLE O'MALLEY. This dahlia, named with the gracious permission of Mrs. O'Malley, is a beautiful crimson of the largest size and of perfect form. I believe it is the largest flower grown of this beautiful shade. Broad velvety petals with the golden sheen of my other production. Stems 18 inches and more long and stiff enough to bear 12-inch flowers erect. I offer a few tubers only at each.....$25.00.

Dahlias from Seeds

Dahlias are being grown from seeds more extensively every year. As easily started as tomato plants, they bloom the same year from seeds. In fact, the plants are more vigorous and grow larger than from tubers.

Being hybrids, dahlias do not come true from seeds, thus new varieties are obtained. From a packet or a pound of dahlia seeds no two plants will have flowers exactly alike. Our two wonderful varieties offered this year were obtained from just such seeds as we sell.

Florists are finding dahlias grown from seeds a most profitable line, every color, type and size of flower being obtainable. Select choice varieties and save the tubers for future propagation.

CAUTION. One common cause of failure of dahlia seeds to germinate is in allowing them to dry out after planting. Sow seeds in a flat or seed pan, in good sandy loam, keep in a warm place and moist, but not too wet. After seeds come up give them plenty of sunlight and do not water too freely to cause damping off.

GLYNLLISON'S FINEST. Seeds saved from such varieties as Mrs. I. De Ver Warner, Champaigne, Jersey's Beauty and others of the wonderful exhibition dahlias. These seeds have in past years produced as high as 40 to 60 double flowers of magnificent quality.

We have a fair quantity of seeds which ripened well with us this year.

One of the most fascinating of garden games. Dahlias, Gladioli, Iris, Cannas, Roses and many hardy plants, being hybrids, do not come true from seeds, and thus new varieties are obtained. Plant seeds of these and every morning during the flowering season you will get a new thrill watching Nature produce new colors and varieties.

The better the parent plant which produced the seeds the better will be the varieties obtained. Our seeds are saved only from the best specimens, many being hand pollinated.
